

Fifty Years Together

Looking back through the years I know you could have chosen someone else
But fifty years disappear as I cherish the love that we've felt
The journey's been more amazing than ever in my life I would've believed
And I cannot for one moment imagine another with whom I'd be pleased

Fifty years together is done by so few
To stand by the promise when you say I do
Is a picture of heaven on earth
And even gold cannot measure its worth

Our story's a great one and we celebrate today with gifts of gold
Yet it's with Wedding Day excitement I watch as the next chapters unfold
So when my time on earth is done and I enter that beautiful land
You can know I'll be watching and waiting again to hold your hand.

Fifty years together is done by so few
To stand by the promise when you say I do
Is a picture of heaven on earth
And even gold cannot measure its worth

Fifty years together is done by so few
To stand by the promise when you say I do
Is a picture of heaven on earth
And even gold cannot measure its worth
Not even gold can measure your worth
